Tu Es Petrus: Upon this Rock

Our 7th Annual Parish Retreat!

Last Chance!!

What a blessing our Parish Retreat has been year after year, and we are so excited about another weekend of fellowship, fun, and growth in the Lord! This year again, the retreat will be held at the beautiful Villa of Our Lady Retreat House, Mount Pocono from Friday, February 17 to Sunday, February 19, 2017. Our theme this year is "Tu Es Petrus: Upon This Rock" as we reflect on St. Peter and the gift of the Papacy.

Here is another AMAZING testimonial from a Past Retreatant and Current Retreat Team Member:

For the first several years, I resisted God's gentle nudge to "Come away with Me" and attend our Parish Retreat. It was so easy to find an excuse: I had a prior commitment on the same weekend (for five years!) . . . I'd be uncomfortable spending so much time with a group of people who were "only acquaintances from church" . . . what if I was expected to share my thoughts and feelings about my personal relationship with God — in front of people I barely knew?

I hadn't attended a weekend retreat since high school (remember "Search Weekends?") and I just wasn't sure that this weekend Parish Retreat was for me. But yet, from December into February, the invitation was constantly there. It was in the weekly bulletin, mentioned at weekend Masses, and even personally extended by fellow parishioners—which I did my best to try and avoid!

I finally stopped scrambling for excuses. In February 2016, I attended the St. Patrick Parish Retreat for the first time, and I now realize that all of those times when I heard the invitation from Monsignor O'Connor, retreat team members, fellow parishioners, etc., it was really God inviting me, through them, to Come Away with Him. He pursued me patiently but persistently (and I'm sure He smiled and shook His head at some of my excuses!)

For those first several years I only considered the sacrifices that I would have to make (my time, the cost to attend, my comfort, etc.) and those things kept me away. I never considered the gifts I would receive, but there have been many. Some have been subtle and some not so subtle, and some are only known to God and me. But, there is no doubt that He has blessed me in many ways for accepting His invitation and trusting Him enough to finally say, "Yes."

Do you hear Him inviting you?

---Melody Montag
